Hello

Spring show season is beginning and hopefully everyone is ready. Speaking of Spring shows, Spring Nationals is just around the corner April 21st in Canton, OH, hopefully you are planning on making it.

I would like to take a minute and give special recognition to a group of people that work hard behind the scenes to make the HRBA a very good club and are working to make it better. That would be the Officers, Directors, and everyone that serve on the various committees. These people go above and beyond to make sure that everything runs smoothly.

Some of the things the BOD and Committees are working on are: Realignment of the Sweepstakes Year to be allow for a little more time for end of year activities when Convention is earlier in the year.

We are working on a new merchandise approach which will give more choices to you while limiting the financial risk to the club. The club has instituted a "Late Show Report" policy, which gives more tools when trying to get delinquent show reports from clubs. Thank You, everyone for your diligent work and everything you do to make the HRBA the club it is.

You will be receiving an email in the next few days with a link to a Survey Monkey survey, please take a few minutes to answer the questions. Your answers will help the BOD make the best decisions for the HRBA.

You, the exhibitors continue to make the Havana and HRBA one of the best.

Jim

Hello from Wisconsin!!

Not too much going on in my neck of the woods. Since convention there has only been a few shows we have attended, so that gave us a chance to just get most of the does bred.

The board has rolled out a late show report policy. I am very excited for this as now I can give to each club that sanction with us. This will help me get all those "late reports" collected that I spend so much time trying to get. I am happy to announce as I write this article, I have no late reports!

Until next time, I hope you all are finding your cages full of babies for the Spring National in Canton OH!

Vice-Presidents Report – Deb Morrison

Happy New Year Havana Members!

Well, winter is here and with spring is around the corner, so is show season. Is it just me or does there seem like there are more shows being held during the winter months than there used to be? I supposed that this is a good thing, as long as the weather is decent and the show facilities are climate controlled. Sometimes, it just nice to have an off season to recoup, restore and re-fire. But, like the sports superstars these days, the most successful are those who train year-round. We may not be training year-round, but we definitely should be planning (breeding schedules, culling and shows) year-round.

Our 2018 National Havana show will be here before we know it. Please review the show flyer elsewhere in this issue. As a reminder, the entry deadline is April 6th. I want to encourage those who will be attending to plan on participating in the Havana Auction by either donating a rabbit or plan to purchase some new bloodlines. Also, I know that we normally don't have to ask, but there is always room to volunteer to help with the show. Let the show crew know that you are willing to help take comments, ramrod the tables, etc. I'm looking forward to seeing everyone there.

And I'll leave you with this parting thought. I never make New Year's resolutions, but as most folks do, I try to improve on myself in some way. This year, I want to be more grateful. Several year's ago I was taking comments at an area show, I was greatly taken aback after the judge finished picking BOB & BOS the exhibitors turned to me and thanked me for taking comments. WOW! I never expected that, much less had ever heard of anyone thinking about and taking the time to thank the comment taker. Thanking the Judge...yes, but never occurred to me to thank the comment taker and I'll add, the table ramrod. So, I challenge everyone, as well as myself, to find areas to be a bit more grateful in the new year and let's start with thanking the comment taker at the next show we attend.

Until next time,

Deb

Hello All-

I hope everyone is managing to get through this crazy winter weather. The spring show season is just getting ready to start up here in the Midwest. I have a barn full of hopefuls for Havana Nationals and I hope you do as well. I hope everyone is making their plans to attend. I missed attending last year and I look forward to making the trip this year and getting to hang out with all my Havana friends. The BOD has been busy over the winter working on many new ideas for the membership. If any member has and ideas or anything they would like to talk about then feel free to contact myself or any member of the BOD. The officers and directors are here to represent the members and help the club move forward. That's all I have for now. Look forward to seeing you all at the shows!!

Dear Havana Breeders,

I hope everyone is ready for the Havana Nationals in Canton, Ohio the home of the Football Hall of Fame on April 21st. I also hope that everyone received a flyer by mail around the first of the year.

Just a couple of things to go over about the show that might help in you're planning for this event. The show is cooping optional. If you decide to coop your rabbits you MUST include that with your entry and how many coops you will need. The cooping will be included with your entry if you choose to use it. I cannot stress strongly enough that you're responsible for getting you own rabbits to and from the table whether you use coop or not. There will be no runners.

There will be a banquet the banquet and hotel information was on the back of your flyer. Again, if you would like to go to the banquet you MUST include this with your entry. Please include the number of tickets you will need the price for each person is $25.00. The banquet will be with the Havana and English Spot breeders.

Lastly, there will be a welcome party for all exhibitors that will include some kid friendly and adult beverages along with some snacks. For you entertainment there will also be a DJ. Any donation to help with this event will be greatly be appreciated.

Any questions or if you didn't receive flyers please contact me at mrcbunny@roadrunner.com. Thanks and looking forward to seeing everyone in a few months.
