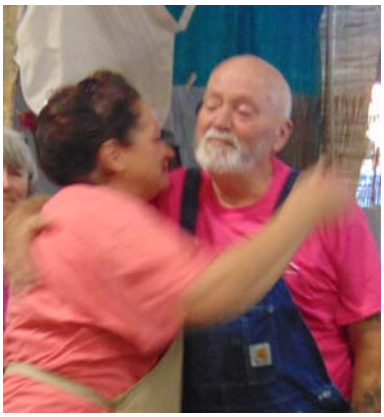
Well the convention is over and things went well. I wish there could have been more animals but I understand that San Diego was a long way for some of our exhibitors to go.

The new guidebook is done and some of you have received it already while others will be getting it shortly. The mailed out copies went out on October 19th by mail. I want to thank Julie Spier for being the editor and everyone who wrote an article. The book looks nice. This guidebook was dedicated to two well deserving breeders, the late Jonette Fleshner and Bill O'Haver. Bill was a little over whelmed with emotion when Julie Spier read the dedication that was written by Deb Morrison.



I would like to thank Tex Thomas and Bruce Ormsby for doing a fine job judging the Havanas at the convention. I also want to thank all of the exhibitors that ran rabbits to and from the show tables. Without all of us working together the day could have been longer than it was.

There was one big surprise on Tuesday of the convention when Julie Spier presented the Lilac variety for the second showing and they passed by a super majority and will be accepted as a variety starting in February 2017. Congratulations to the Lilac COD group.

The Havana booth committee needs a big hand for placing 2nd in the booth contest at the convention. We will have a triple booth in Indianapolis next year and there is already a group with some ideas for the booth.

In this newsletter you will find election results with the judges names that will be contacted for upcoming conventions. You will also find the constitutional changes results. There were two seats open for directors and they could not be filled as there were not enough directors and officers at the convention to have a quorum. Those two spots will be filled by a director vote. You will also find lists of top 10 placements for all classes open and youth.

There was not much discussed at the open membership meeting but the Great Lakes Havana Club was awarded the spring national show for 2018 in Canton, OH. The other main topic was sending out the newsletter four times a year instead of six. To do this there would have to be a constitutional change. Be thinking about how you feel about this. If you would like to be the editor of the newsletter please contact me.

Enjoy the pictures from the convention that you will find in the newsletter. I have been sent many pictures from a number of people so just enjoy and thanks to our members for sending them.

As most of you already know the spring national will be in Hutchinson KS on April 22, 2017 hope to see a bunch of you there.

Hello to all! I hope those who made the trip to Convention had a wonderful time. Congrats to all the winners.

The 2015-2016 sweepstakes have been finalized and you can find the results in this issue of the newsletter. The top six in each variety and top three in fur for both Open and Youth have received an award at the Convention. For anyone who did not attend your awards will be mailed. Remember that the sweepstakes run from August 1st to July 31st each season. As always, if you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact any board member to express your concerns. Remember you have a voice in the club as a member and if you want to see a change in the club please voice your opinion.

Vice-Presidents Report – Deb Morrison

Hello Fellow Havana Breeders!

There are a lot of things going on this time or year and I know that many of us have several irons in the fire. Fair season and fall shows have arrived and it looks like our Havanas are holding there own and bringing home some big wins. Congratulations to all the winners. Keep up the good work.

I look forward to seeing everyone at the convention next week in Del Mar. I pray that everyone has safe travels and most of all that your Havanas are primed and ready for the big show. It sounds like the WHO gang has some great plans for us. Check in this newsletter or stop by the Havana booth for a schedule of activities.

Last but not least, I want to encourage everyone to start making plans to attend the 2017 National Havana show April 22nd in Hutchinson, KS. Other breed National shows included with the Havanas will be the Cinnamons, English Spots, Palomino and Thriantas. These shows will be hosted by the Central Regional Rabbit Club. Show catalogs will be available at the Convention, on the Havana web page, in the newsletter and on the Central Regional Rabbit Club's Facebook page.

Hello everybody! I apologize for my long absence from the newsletter- work/job has been keeping me pretty busy. This article finds you just after convention. Hopefully everybody has had a safe trip home and a big congratulations to all the winners! I was not able to send any Havanas to convention, and Julie Spier had solo honors on presenting the lilac variety. Her animals are beautiful and I'm sure the presentation was stunning. My lilacs here in Illinois are doing well, and I have 4-6 does in production of just that variety. If anybody in the Midwest wants to give the lilacs a try email me and I'll try and accommodate you. Julie has also just finished production on our new anniversary guidebook, and those of you at convention picked yours up at the breed booth.

I moderate one of the groups on Facebook devoted to the Havana rabbit and have had a surge of interest in the breed lately. One of the things I try to do is help people find breeding stock. I am not familiar with many breeders in the Northeast and have had several new people approach me from this area. If you're in the NE could you please let me know? I'd be happy to pass your names on to new breeders in this area looking for stock. My email address is dawnbeat.rabbitry@gmail.com. Thank you all, and go out there and Muster the Luster!

Hello Havana Breeders

I have been busy judging fairs this summer and have not had much contact with other Havana breeders this summer. I also did a few fund raiser shows this summer, one to help support the Mini Lop members who were unjustly sued and one to help raise money for supporting a new club.

I also did a show in Canada. We in the States can learn a lot from the Canadians, they put on a great show and also work well together. I f you are on the Canadian border and have an opportunity to go to one of these shows I would greatly suggest it. So many Canadians come down to shows in the States we should reciprocate in kind.

I hope everyone is getting prepared for convention this year. Good luck to everyone at convention. Just too far this year and can't get enough time off of school.

At the he shows I have been to lately the Havanas have been few and far between. Don't know what is going on with the breed but it seems to be dying out here on the East side of the Mississippi.

Well that is about it from Ohio. Looking forward to seeing everyone in the fall at some shows and hope there are more Havanas out there soon. Take care and hope you nest boxes are full of National winners.

At the time of writing the 2016 ARBA Convention - The Fibber Cup Invitational - in Delmar is but a few days away, our interim newsletter editor Dallas Meyer plans to send out this edition immediately following so as to include the Convention results.

It's been a successful summer for the Havana rabbit exhibitors out on the west coast - with Havana's frequently garnering top honors on both the open and youth BIS table.

The Triple Crown specialty show cluster in early summer featured a special showing of the Lilac variety. With ARBA president Josh Humphries judging we were able to get a sneak preview of some of the presentation animals. The quality of the animals featured was exceedingly high and the hard work and dedication of the presenters shone through. We are all feeling a sense of hopeful anticipation for a positive 1st try at the 2nd showing this year.

Speaking of sneak previews I've also had a quick glimpse of Julie Spier's work on another matter - the new HRBA guidebook. I'm eagerly awaiting the hard copy and I do believe the membership will be pleased with the finished product.

As some of you who follow us on social media sites know this summer was an "eventful" one for us. While attending the Placerville show July 30th, we got word that a wildfire that came to be known as the Goose Fire had broken out a mere few miles from the ranch. Within hours the entire mountain had been placed under mandatory evacuation. Returning home as soon as we were able, we were greeted by a blockade at the turn off and the sight of the ridge directly behind our home lit up by the flames. A sight awe inspiring in it's terror. A sleepless night was spent on the pews of a church that had opened its doors for displaced residents of the community, having received word from contacts that the fire at dusk had been but a 1/4 mile from the property line. At first light we were escorted under fire department and sheriff escort onto the property having secured a special dispensation to get in to evacuate what we could. The whole hot, smoky day was spent in ferrying to safety Allen and Randy's herd of Angora Goats, the other livestock and pets and the combined rabbit herds of the five of us who lived at the ranch. The outpouring of support from the rabbit community was incredible - and speaks volumes of the close knit family we are part of in ARBA. Our gratitude to all those who participated in the efforts to save not only our home but all of the threatened mountain communities cannot be overstated. Ultimately the Goose Fire burned 2,242 acres, took nine days to reach containment and destroyed 9 structures; however our home survived due to the dedication and hard work of the emergency responders.

In Central California we are now entering that odd time of year when nighttime temperatures can feel rather chilly and very autumnal while the daytime highs remind us that we are still in California and true winter is still months away. The marked difference between the daily highs and lows can play havoc with the all important coats and conditioning for the convention and fall show string prospects.

The weather forecast for San Diego looks very encouraging with its more temperate and stable coastal climate - great for both animals and people. San Diego offers so many amenities and attractions - even for the non rabbit spouses and children - that I hope to see many of you out here making a vacation of it. The Fibber Cup Invitational promises to be a real destination convention and one not to be missed.

Hello all from South Dakota! The fairs are over in this neck of the woods and boy are the Havanas coming along nicely; for other breeders. I did get lucky enough for 1 Best In Show, but the kids around here have been cleaning house for Best of Breed and getting Best in Show or even mentioned for consideration.

I’m told that this newsletter will go out after the convention, so congrats to all the winners. I hope you had a safe journey and fun and friendly competition. Sorry I was unable to attend, but I hope everything went smoothly for the exhibitors and host club.

Our State convention and show will be held Oct. 29th and 30th in Watertown, SD. So, I have plenty of rabbit related work to do, as my local club is in charge of it this year. I’m hoping for a good turn out, as its 2 weeks after the ARBA Convention, so bring those new rabbits you bought!

Have a fun filled fall show season, until next time.

Proposed Change #B-1, Article 11 – National All Havana Show – Section 1

Current Wording

The National All Havana Show shall be selected from bids at the Annual Meeting at the American Rabbit Breeders Association Convention and Show. Bids are to be presented or mailed to the Havana Secretary prior to the Annual Meeting, stating the sponsoring club, proposed show date and location by a Havana member who will probably be the Havana Show chairman. The All Havana Show may not be held in the same state two years in a row. If more than one bid is received, a paper vote of members present determines the majority wishes.

Proposed Change

The National All Havana Show shall be selected from presented or mailed to the Havana Secretary by July 1st, stating the sponsoring club, proposed show date and location. If more than one bid is received, bids shall be added to the official ballot issued by the Secretary, between August 1st and September 1st, and shall contain the National All Havana Show bid proposals. The All Havana Show may not be held in the same state two years in a row
